SIMCHAS TORAH.

The Elite and Beauty of Hebrew Society at Amory Hall, Last Night.

One of the most brilliant and recherche events of the season in Hebrew society, was that of last night at Amory Hall, the occasion being the Simchas Torah ball. Having just passed through the most solemn season of the Jewish year, the ladies of the Hebrew Aid Society had projected what is known in their society as the opening ball of the Hebrew social year. Under the auspices and conduct of the society the beauty and fashion of Jewish society assembled last night and when at 10 o'clock the strain of the orchestra broke forth in the grand march, the scene was a fascinating one. The various committees had spared no pains to make the occasion an enjoyable one, and from the first display by the dancers and the interest taken by the spectators, their efforts met with the most gratifying success. The reception committee—designated by a blue knot of ribbon—was composed of Messrs. L. Sussman, L. A. Goldstein, H. Mayer and H. Haber. The floor committee, under the leadership of Mr. H. Lawrence, and assisted by Mr. L. Lippman, G. Heilmann, L. Lyons, S. H. Long and J. Mart did efficient service, and conducted most admirably the programme for the night. As the strains of the orchestra, saxes, saxes and flutes played in the hall, there were not a few in the ranks. Mr. H. Lawrence and Miss Libbie Goldstein who graciously and accurately led the march through many intricate figures. Following them were seen Mr. and Mrs. Heilmann, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lawrence, Mr. L. Lippman and Miss Mollie Marx, Mr. Will Woods and Miss Weill, Mr. and Mrs. Frank, Mr. Leopold Lyons and Miss Hortense Herz, Mr. and Mrs. Sussman, Mr. Chas. Sanger and Miss Carrie Emanuel, Mr. Michael Strauss and Miss Rosie Dreyfus, Mr. and Mrs. A. Friedman, Mr. A. Friedman and Lady, Mr. Jake Benedict and Miss Rosie Sanger, Mr. J. Shapiro and Miss Bella Shapiro and many others whose names were not obtained. Upon the platform surrounding the head of the hall, and which, by the way, gives a most excellent view of the floor, were seen the estimable rabbi, Dr. Levy and his lady, Mr. and Mrs. Moser, B. Haber and Lady, T. A. Blair and wife, Mrs. Shapiro, Mr. James Kor and Miss Sophia Sanger, Mr. and Mrs. B. Alexander, Mr. W. M. Rishland and lady, the Misses Emma and Bella Beer, Mr. Lane Grand accompanied by Mrs. Grand and some friends, Judge Eugene Williams and lady, Mr. Isaac Simmons and his bride, Mr. Will Brazel and Miss Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. Marx, Mr. and Mrs. S. Marx, Mr. and Mrs. James Carter, Mr. Dave Lippman, of Whitney and a host of others. It was well along into the "wee small hours" when the guests having tripped the light fantastic to their hearts content bade the ladies of the society adieu and separated into their homes with many words of praise for the Simchas Torah ball of October 4th, 1887.

A Nuisance.

There is a practice among some of the fifth and sixth rate shops in this city, that is growing to be a burden, and that forcibly reminds the victim of a similar experience on the sidewalks of Chatham and Baxter streets in the city of New York. The practice referred to is that of impudent drumming. It is growing more prevalent every day among some of these shopkeepers in a business way to stop the passer by, buttonhole him if necessary and importune his patronage. It is a nuisance and should not be permitted.

Nearly a Drowning.

Yesterday evening as the one year old child of Mr. George Morse, who lives in North Waco near Proctor Springs, was playing with another little one, he fell on his face in a tub of water. There was about three inches of water in the tub, enough to drown the child. The mother, with much trouly care sent a little girl out to see what "baby" was doing and she, just in time as it proved—pulled the babe out of its dangerous position. Mr. Morse was immediately sent for and by restoratives and care the child's life was saved. It was a narrow escape and the parents have the hearty congratulations of THE EXAMINER and their many friends that it proved no worse an accident.

THE OCEAN'S DEAD.

The Propeller California Goes Down Off St. Helena Island.

DETROIT, Oct. 4.—A special to the Evening Journal from Mackinaw City, Michigan, says: "The propeller California, commanded by Captain Trowell, left Chicago Saturday night bound for Montreal. She was laden with 20,000 bushels of corn and 700 barrels of pork and carried a crew of twenty three persons, and also had three passengers. She encountered a heavy wind early Monday morning off Beaver's and at 1 o'clock in the afternoon the sea had increased so it was impossible to steer her and 300 barrels of pork were thrown overboard, but without helping her much. About 1 o'clock this morning when just about St. Helena Island, a sea broke in the gang way and put out the fire. She then swung around in a rough sea and began breaking up. The captain ordered the boats lowered, but she was so badly listed that it was impossible to lower but one. The captain went into the cabin to get the passengers, but when he returned found that the first mate and several of the men had left with the boat. The steamer now began rapidly breaking up, and soon all hands were struggling in the water. The captain and engineer succeeded in getting a boat from the wreck and picked up the second engineer, cook and one lady. Their boat drifted alongside the propeller, A Folsom, which was anchored under St. Helena and was picked up and brought here. Another boat had succeeded in getting ashore near Point La Barbe. The steamer Faxton picked up one man who was drifting to the straits on some wreckage. Among the lost are George Foley, Cornelius Conerton, of Detroit, a passenger; Eda Pappa, stewardess; Arthur Haxard, cabin boy, and Robert Grant. The shore for five miles above here is strewn with the wreckage. Captain Trowell says all were supplied with life preservers and it is possible that all the bodies will be recovered.

We extend an earnest invitation to every lady in Waco to pay our cloak and millinery departments a visit during the special exhibition on the 6th, 7th and 8th inst. Both departments will be artistically decorated, and it will be a display worth seeing.

Change in General Secretaries—Mr. Dimmick Goes to Washington Territory.

The board of directors of the Young Men's Christian Association met last evening in the lecture room of the association with President Ed Roten in the chair. After the routine business had been disposed of the resignation of General Secretary S. F. Dimmick was taken up and accepted. Mr. Dimmick has been with the Waco association almost ever since its organization and has done much toward placing the association before the public in a true light as to its field of operations and its accomplishments, and the board of directors last evening expressed themselves in the highest terms of the retiring general secretary. Mr. John T. Battle was then selected to fill the vacancy. The selection could not have been better. Mr. Battle having all the qualities of mind and heart necessary to fit him for the position. Mr. Dimmick has accepted a general secretaryship in Washington Territory and will leave for his new post one week from today.

She Masqueraded.

Last evening one of the frail sisterhood of the city took it into her head that she would like to view the ten cent circus from a masculine point of view and procuring a suit of male attire sallied forth in company with a friend in pursuit of a night's masquerading. Arriving at the circus they passed into the tent and with the other spectators enjoyed its many attractions. The show over, they emerged from the tented arena and were about to proceed on their homeward way. But "the best laid plans of mice and men"—and women too—"oft go awry," and in this instance the words of the poet proved too sadly true. They had proceeded but a few steps on their way, when the fair masquerader was accosted by an officer and placed under arrest. Her companion did some tall pleading for her, but it was of no avail. The officer assisted by another custodian of the peace escorted her toward the lock up, where, it is presumed, she spent the night and will this morning answer to the mayor for her night's escapade.

LOVE JACK.

He Holds Up Another Stage, but Gets Little Booty.

BALLINGER, Tex., Oct. 4.—The Ballinger and San Angelo stage was again robbed last night, about eight miles out from this place by the same "lone highwayman" who held it up last Thursday. He was recognized by his voice, his looks and his horse. He was not as successful in this as the last, there being only two male passengers, and it appears that they were not loaded down with the filthy lucre. D. F. Gay, of Burt & Gay, of this city, was relieved of $3 and the other party a like amount. There were two ladies aboard, one of whom handed over $15, but the bandit was too glib to accept it, saying he never took money from the ladies. He then proceeded to go through the mail bags, opening every letter, but it is said only got about $15, all told. He then moved up to meet the outgoing stage and commanded the parties just robbed not to move until he fired his pistol. After waiting about an hour, the stage pulled up, having eluded the robber by taking a new route.

THE ANARCHISTS.

Petition Being Signed and Money Furnished in Abundance.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—S. Oliver, president of the Antislavery association, which has charge of the petitions in behalf of the condemned anarchists to Governor Oglesby, said yesterday that the work of the association is progressing rapidly. Outside of Chicago there is a great demand for petition blanks. Thousands of copies have been sent to many cities and towns in Iowa, Colorado, California, Missouri, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and other states. New York alone will furnish some 50,000 signatures to the petition, while in Boston a great many signatures of prominent citizens will be obtained. In Chicago the number of signatures is large. Most of the members of the various labor organizations have signed the petition. The defense fund of the anarchists has been considerably increased since the announcement of the decision of the supreme court. A subscription in favor of the anarchists has been started in England. Gustavo Belaz says that during the last two weeks the amount of money subscribed to the defense fund by German aliens of Chicago amounts to nearly $10,000. The large cities of the United States are expected to contribute $10,000 during the present month. The attorneys are rapidly closing up their work preparatory to presenting the anarchists' case to the United States supreme court. Captain Beach received word yesterday from Deputy Snow announcing that a complete transcript of the record be finished and placed in the attorney's hands by Wednesday of next week. General Frayer will not come to this city.

GALVESTON NOTES.

To Test the Sunday Law—The Vacant Judgeship.

GALVESTON, Tex., Oct. 4.—The proprietors of the Texas Star flour mills which has been shutting down at 12 o'clock Saturday nights since the enforcement of the Sunday Law, are considering the propriety of testing the constitutionality of the law by going before Judge Cook on a writ of habeas corpus. The matter, so far, has only been discussed, and no definite conclusion has yet been arrived at.

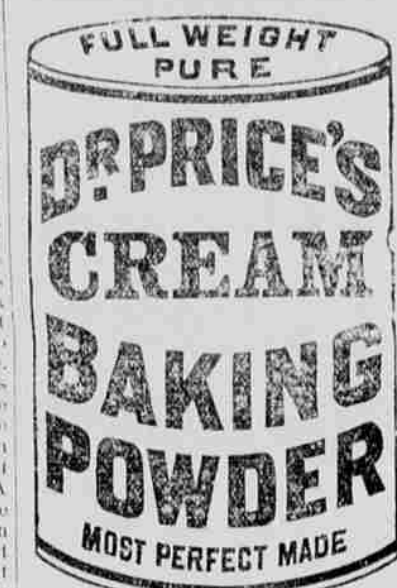

Some time since Judge William P. Ballinger and Frank M. Spencer, leading members of the Galveston bar, visited Washington, and called upon President Cleveland to urge the appointment of Hon. A. H. Willie to the vacancy on the supreme bench of the United States occasioned by the death of Judge Newell. This committee has arrived here and from them it is learned that the president informed the delegation that should he remain in his present frame of mind, he would certainly appoint Secretary Lamar to the vacancy and the delegation came home feeling that Secretary Lamar's nomination was a fixed certainty.

No New Developments.

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 4.—There are no new developments about the horrible crime committed here on the night of the 2nd. Six or eight parties have been arrested and taken before Miss Walker to be identified, but the right man has never been arrested. Mr. Barlow and Miss Walker were mar ried this evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, 1100 Jackson street.
